

FIGURE 1

A high-contrast, black and white photograph of a textured surface, possibly a rock or metal. The image is characterized by a dense, grainy texture with numerous small, light-colored spots and scratches. A large, irregular, dark, circular feature is prominent in the center-left, appearing as a deep shadow or a hole. The overall appearance is that of a rough, weathered, or corroded surface.

FIGURE 2

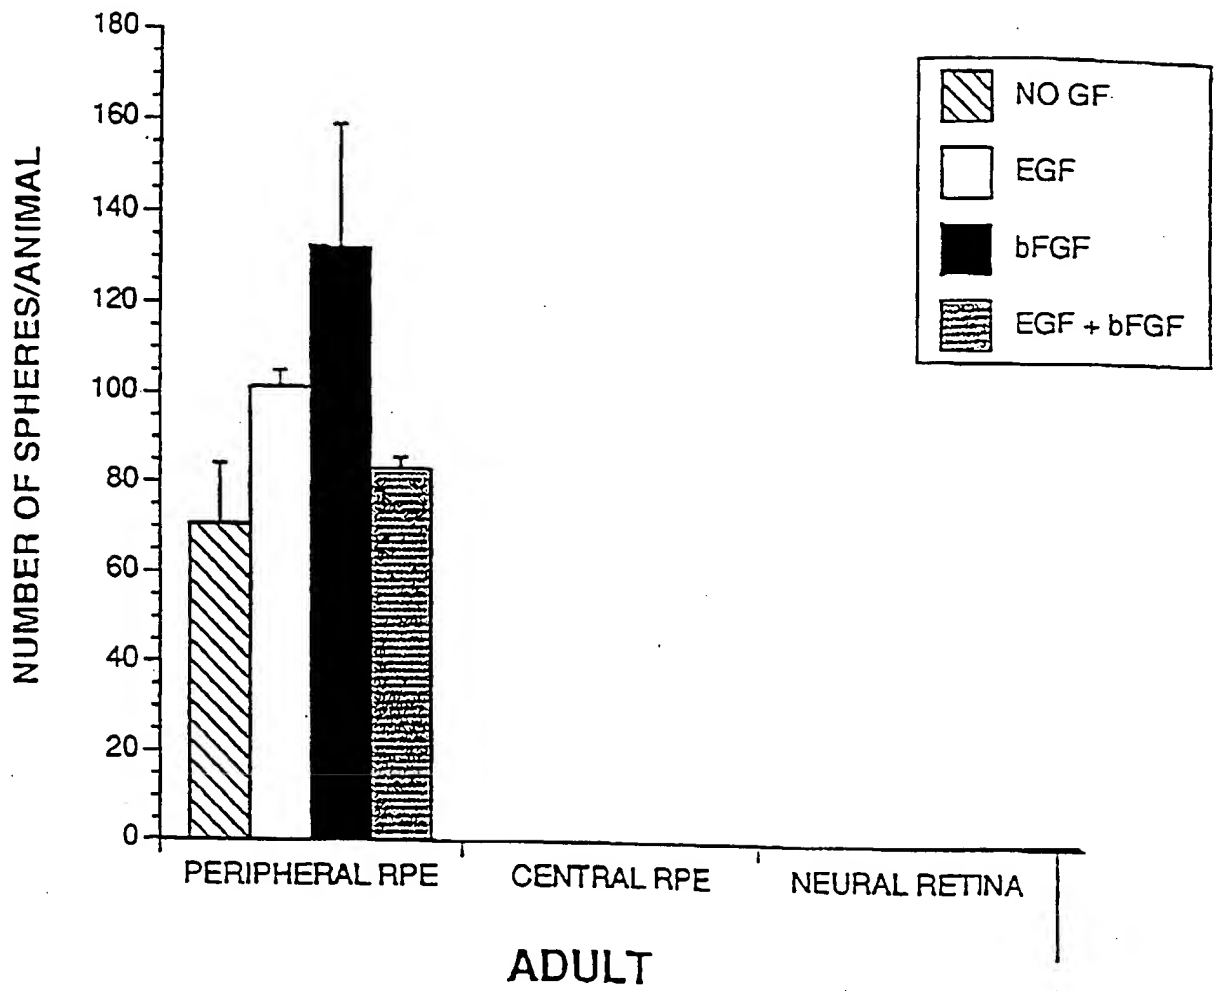

Figure 3